Economics Student

Arico Rizky Zaidan Rifa'i

Hi! I'm a Economics student at Universitas Pembangunan Nasional "Veteran" Yogyakarta, dedicated and detail-oriented with a strong interest in data analysis, economics, and technology. Currently working as a Statistics Agent at Pojok Statistik UPNVY, I specialize in data processing, economic research, and data visualization.

My experience has sharpened my ability to interpret complex data into meaningful insights that support informed decision-making. I thrive in dynamic environments that challenge analytical thinking, creativity, and design aesthetics. With a continuous learning mindset and a collaborative spirit, I am committed to leveraging data and creative visualization to deliver innovative and impactful solutions in economics and community development.
